Private John Lake, African American Soldier from Haywood County, TN

These soldiers were known as United States Colored Troops (USCT). Private John Lake from Haywood County TN was one of the more than 20 thousand black men from Tennessee who joined the Union Army during the period 1863 through 1865. Private Lake was born at Warrick, Virginia, but had immigrated to Haywood County TN by 1863 when he joined the Union Army. Records do not indicate where he lived in the county, however, they do show that he had a wife, Julia Lake, who died near Dancyville in 1867.

Private Lake enlisted at Union City, October 20, 1863 for five years. At that time, Private Lake was 30 years old, about 5 feet 3 inches tall with a black complexion and black hair. He enlisted in Company H of the 4th Colored Heavy Artillery. After Private Lake left the army in February 1866, he married Mima Evans in 1869 with Rev. Henry Allen performing the wedding ceremony. Lake and his wife bought a farm 5 miles east of Brownsville, TN. They had at least three children: John Lake, Anna Lake, and Zilphia Lake. Private Lake died in Haywood County TN in 1908.

Other United States Colored Troops from Haywood County were: Jerry Newson, Company G, Heavy Artillery; Private Isaac Craig, 2nd USCT Infantry; Dick Woodland, 5th Heavy Artillery; Corporal Sam Starks, 5th USCT Infantry; Private Nelson Mooring, 11th USCT Infantry; Ike Adams, 3rd USCT Heavy Artillery; Israel Walker, 3rd USCT Infantry; and Private Alex Tucker, Co. E, USCT Cavalry

Come and hear a full, exciting accounting of this era in American history by noted historian, Dr. Bobby Lovett, at the Dunbar Carver Museum, Saturday, April 13, 2013, at 5 p.m. as part of the Dunbar Carver Saturday Night at the Museum.
